

Volunteer Appreciation Award Nomination Form

The Township of Greater Madawaska relies on the contributions of volunteers and their organizations whose efforts contribute significantly to the quality of life in our community. We see volunteers supporting family, friends, neighbours and strangers and we recognize the value of caring, compassion and community engagement that is shown regularly in Greater Madawaska. National Volunteer Week in April is a time to celebrate, recognize and thank volunteers and create awareness for the important work that many people do in and for our Township.

Nominees must be a resident or own a business in the Township of Greater Madawaska. Achievements and contributions must be on a volunteer basis and not for pay.

NOMINATIONS DUE (Last Day of National Volunteer Week which is): April 20, 2024
