Property Information

Concerned ratepayers have approached the Township of Greater Madawaska as well as other levels of government regarding the speed of traffic on Highway 41 in Griffith.

Township representatives held meetings with the Minister of Transportation (MTO) and the OPP. The three parties agreed to hold a public meeting to permit the MTO and OPP to explain their position on the concerns raised. To prepare for the public meeting, Council issued a survey that was distributed and completed in July 2021.

Next Steps

Following this public meeting a report with recommendations will be brought forward by staff for consideration by Council.
